

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

To Bible Students of all Denominations,
and all lovers of Truth and Righteousness:

In my sermon of May 5th I charged that the Christian ministry is hiding the Key of Divine knowledge from the people, as did the Doctors of Divinity of Jesus' day. This has aroused much comment. I am asked in substance: Why, Pastor Russell, did you not specify the particular subjects on which the Pulpit is seeking to keep the Pew in ignorance--hiding the key of knowledge? If what you say is true the laity must awake to this unsuspected danger! But prove to us that it is true!

Sad I am that it is true that the ministers of all denominations (with some noble exceptions) are the chief foes to real Bible study. Christians of all denominations love and reverence the Bible as the Word of God. Under the light now shining from one page of it to another, they would soon discard the creeds of the darker past and become one united church--with "one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism," were it not for the ministers. The preachers having lost faith in the inspiration of the Bible are "higher critics." They do not wish to show their unbelief, hence avoid Bible discussion. They await the ripening of unbelief when they can publicly say, We educated ministers have not believed the Bible inspired for many long years. We kept quiet until you would not be shocked by the statement. But to the proofs:

(1) The preachers know that the only Hebrew word translated hell in our Bibles has no reference whatever to a great torture-chamber such as their people believe contains nearly all humanity. Privately they will admit that "sheol" means the tomb, and that its equivalent in the New Testament Greek is "hades." They will admit, too, that "Gehenna" is the name of a valley outside Jerusalem where rubbish was consumed and explained Biblically to symbolize the Second Death.--Rev. 20: 14

(2) I charge Rev. Haldeman, D. D., with attempting to throw dust into the mental eyes of Baptists by horribly misrepresenting my teachings, to hinder his people from studying Bible teachings to which I call attention, by cracking over their heads the whip of fear. When he declared my teachings to be "the blasphemous religion which teaches the annihilation of Jesus Christ" he intended his untruthful words should scare timid "sheep" and hinder Bible study. He not only helped to hide the "key of knowledge," but in this unscrupulous way he tries to keep the Lord's people from finding it. I am positive he would not think for a moment of defending his own Church Creed in public. The misrepresentation of my teachings is to rally the old spirit of the "dark ages," the spirit of hatred and sectarianism. His followers will not so closely examine their own creed if they are busy fighting a supposed enemy, and Dr. Haldeman misrepresents me to be that enemy. Alas! what a heavy penalty we may fear at the hands of the Lord upon those who, posing as light-bearers, are serving the cause of darkness--hating the light and misrepresenting it.

I might multiply facts, but these may suffice for the present. If Christian people once realize the extent to which they are being hoodwinked by the clergy they would soon find abundance of proof. If they ask for Bible instruction along simple lines (bread) they will be given a stone of evasion. If they ask for stronger meat (fish) they will get a serpent--a stinging rebuke, for meddling in matters theological, as though they doubted that the preacher knew everything, and as though they supposed that the laity were capable of understanding anything! Abraham Lincoln well said, "You can fool all the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time."

Faithful to the Morning light (2 Pet. 1: 19),

C. S. Russell

COLPORTEURS.—Our Society employs Christian men and women to teach the Gospel by circulating these "Studies." Indeed, the major part of the more than four million copies already in the hands of students have been circulated in this manner. Write to us for "Suggestive Hints to Colporteurs." To the unencumbered we recommend this as one of the very best methods of fulfilling the injunction, "Go teach all nations."

HYMNS OF DAWN contain a very choice selection of 333 Hymns, purged, we trust, from much of the too-common, erroneous hymn-book theology. In cloth binding, postpaid, with music, 35c.; leather, postpaid, $1.00.

Primary Studies.

PEOPLES PULPIT.—Primary studies for beginners. Published in the following languages: English, German, Swedish, Hungarian, Polish, Greek, Spanish, Italian, French and Norwegian. Order freely all you can use judiciously.

This fund consists of the free-will offerings of students who have been nourished and strengthened by the "meat in due season," which the above publications, as God's instrumentalities, are laying before consecrated Bible Students the world over.

This fund is constantly employed in sending out, gratis, thousands of copies of THE WATCH TOWER and PEOPLES PULPIT most suitable to new readers. It also assists in the spread of the "STUDIES IN THE SCRIPTURES" series by aiding those disposed to circulate them—colporteurs and others. It also provides a "poor fund" by which any of the Lord's children who, through age or sickness, or from other cause, are unable to subscribe for THE WATCH TOWER, are supplied free, upon condition of their sending a letter or card in May of each year, stating their desire and inability.

No one is ever asked to contribute to this fund: all donations must be voluntary. We remind our readers of the Apostle's words (1 Cor. 16: 1, 2) and corroborate them: "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Concordances.

"Young's Concordance" is at once a Greek and Hebrew Lexicon, giving the meaning of the original terms in English, and also a Concordance, giving all the words of Scripture, and the words which they translate. The value of the work is becoming more apparent daily as theorists attempt to palm off a private interpretation under the guise of "a better definition of the original."

In this superb volume every word is arranged under its own Hebrew and Greek original, exhibiting 311,000 references and 30,000 various readings. Its size is large quarto; 1094 pages. The retail price of the book is $6.00, carriage prepaid. The publishers limit us to the regular price, but we give four cloth-bound volumes of SCRIPTURE STUDIES as a concession. This is the "Author's Edition,"—latest revision.

STRONG'S EXHAUSTIVE CONCORDANCE, 1,800 pages, is a later work of the same general character, preferred by some. Cloth, $3.00; half leather, $5.00. Postage 65c.
