Even Greater Israel

JEWS—Return to Palestine

Q792:1 QUESTION— Does the Bible teach a return of the Jews to Palestine, and is that country large enough for all of Abraham's descendants? (F.W.)

ANSWER—The Bible answer is YES to both questions: (a) “I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and will bring you again into the land of Israel.” “Ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be My people, and I will be your God.” “And they shall say, this land that was desolate is become like the Garden of Eden” (Eze. 37:12; Eze. 36:27-35). (b) What is known as the land of Palestine is but a very small part of the promised land, which is to stretch from the Nile to the Euphrates (Gen. 15:18), and appears to include Arabia as well as parts of Egypt and the Soudan, an area equal to the half of Europe. Much of this is now desert land, but “the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.” (Isa. 35:1.) Thus there will be ample space and abundant provision made for the Israelites in the promised land—promised for an everlasting possession to Abraham and his descendants—when God’s favor will have returned to them as foretold by the Prophets—Rom. 11:25-27.
